It was moved and seconded to accept the report and passed unanimously.

4. Report of the Grand Secretary

M.E. Comp. William C. Eppig, Gr. Sec

MEGHP,

I want to thank all the chapter secretaries for their dedication and support to their chapters over the last year, especially in implementing the membership system.

Annual Reports: A summary of the 2024 Annual Reports has been submitted and is on the back of the agenda. All but one Chapter submitted their reports by the deadline, and all fees have been paid. After the Session, I will submit a final report for Maryland and an assessment to the General Grand Chapter in November.

We are officially using the new Masonic Membership Solutions database, which has been open to the secretaries since June. Most secretaries have been adapting to it, but a few are still getting used to it. One advantage of the system is that we were able to shorten the Annual Report submitted to the Grand Chapter from 15 pages to just 3. They can utilize the annual report from the MMS but must delete any plural members from the count to not pay an assessment for them since the home chapter is responsible for that.

Another advantage is that we now have a more accurate membership count for the Grand Chapter of Maryland, with the Chapters and the Grand Chapters Databases being the same.

Last year, the chapters reported 962 members, but the Grand Chapter had just over 1000 members listed. I worked with several chapters to align our list, but it was not easy with the many changes in Secretaries over the four years.

As reported by the chapters and the MMS, we currently have 896 members. This is a deduction of 66 after the conversion.

By using the new MMS, we can have our Dues cards printed by the same company that prints the Commandery and Scottish Rite dues cards. They are more professional-looking and can be mailed using a window envelope instead of the secretary taking the time to address an envelope to send the card to the member.

The Dues cards for all the chapters have been printed and are at the desk for the secretary or representative to pick up after this meeting. The company includes a printout of the chapter membership on which the cards are based.

I encourage all secretaries here and any High Priest and elected line to review the provided dues card member list and make any necessary corrections. Membership systems only work as well as the information inputted into the system. We started well and will only get better.

The system is also open for each member to view their profile and have the ability to adjust or add information as needed. And I encourage them to do so.

The next item on the agenda is to cross-reference lodge deaths and suspensions with ours and notify the Grand Council and Commandery of those individuals.

All donations from our Chapters to Royal Arch Research Assistance have been mailed to the General Grand Chapter Coordinator.

Secretary and Recorder School: I am considering holding a Secretary / Recorder School in February 2025. We have had several changes over the last year, which should benefit them. Plus, we can refresh on the MMS.

Donations: This past year, we received requests from Delmar Job's Daughters and Maryland DeMolay for donations to assist in purchasing T-shirts for the Job's Daughters Supreme session and sponsorship for DeMolay Conclave. We donated $200 to both and received lovely thank-you notes. The Grand Chapter helped sponsor an ice cream truck at the Conclave. It was well received during a hot July Saturday.

This is a preferable way to donate than just writing a check. The money will go to something the youth need and have directed.

RAM Magazine: Since we have an accurate Membership list, I will send it to the Royal Arch Magazine. We will save money by sending it to fewer members; the address should be correct.

Most Excellent Grand High Priest Martinez, working with you over the last two years was a pleasure. Your dedication to this Grand Chapter and to the Royal Arch in general is exemplary. I know that with the Excellent King's resignation, you have been working with R.E. Scribe Rodriguez to help prepare him for the following year. We have no debt; you have left us in good hands for the next two years. Congratulations on an outstanding two years!

Respectfully Submitted and move acceptance of this report.

William C. Eppig, P.G.H.P., Grand Secretary

The motion was seconded and passed unanimously.

6. Report on Committee of Accounts and Finance

R.E. Andrew Martinez, R.E.G.K.

Report received at the Semi-Annual Convocation on May 9, 2024.

M.E.G.H.P. Andrew Martinez calls on Ex. Comp, Rafael Rodrigues, Grand Scribe, to assume the East. This allows the GHP to deliver his Grand High Priest Report.

7. Report of the Grand High Priest

M.E. Comp. G. Andrew Martinez, G.H.P.

Back when I used to play rugby, a teammate gave me a book about one of my favorite athletes. He inscribed a dedication to me in that book from William Shakespeare's Twelfth Night, "Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them." With that, I have to say what a fantastic two years I have been blessed with as MEGHP! It truly has been a learning experience which has made me an even better person. I got to meet so many wonderful people (it truly is about the people), travel to so many wonderful events, and do so many wonderful things. Hopefully, somehow, someday, I made even a small difference.

I will be the first to admit I did not accomplish everything I had planned to get done. I had so many things in my long-range plan that I wanted to get implemented. It was an admirable firefight with my calendar, but alas, in the end, I lost. The hourglass's sands ran out, and my race ended seemingly before I got out of the starting blocks. But... we (not me) still accomplished great things.

I was very happy to visit all of the Chapters over the last two years (some several times) and every visit was met with warm fellowship. I was always happy to do ritual work when asked. (You all definitely made sure I did not get rusty.) I truly enjoyed doing Service Award presentations, such as the 50-year awards for PGHP Clif Friel and Companion Stanley Howeth. During visitations, I was always happy to hear your questions and concerns and do my best to directly address them and offer counsel as to how best to improve a situation. My door has always been open and I hope my communications to our membership were at least ample.

Our York Rite Triage Sessions this past summer unveiled some interesting trends in our Maryland York Rite and our Grand Chapter findings will only serve to help make our Grand Chapter better. This was the first of hopefully more sessions to make our collective York Rite in Maryland better. I know the wheels are turning in the heads of the soon to be installed Dias Officers of all three York Rite bodies. Some good long-range plans were hatched out of that triage session. From our Grand Chapter break-out session, I can say that our Chapters are doing well (for the most part), our ritual is getting better, and creative programs are being offered to get Companions off the sofa and into the Chapter.

I have to admit I am very impressed with our Masonic Youth. I did not have much exposure to the three youth bodies until my time in Grand Chapter and, I will admit, I was missing a crucial part of what we as masons are all about... Our Masonic Youth does so much and they have fun doing it. They are amazing. You can tell that every one of them is going to go far in life. I am very thankful for the invitations to their events and the warm reception they always gave me.

A big thank you to all of the Grand Chapter Line Officers who have served so diligently over the last 2 years. Your service is greatly appreciated by me and all of York Rite Freemasonry. I want to thank PGHP Bob Chase for staying on top of our Grand Chapter Service Awards. Your diligence is making a difference to the Companions who have put in long years of service to Royal Arch Freemasonry. I want to extend my sincere thanks to PGHP Bill Eppig, PGHP Vern Huebschman, and PHP Kris Brown for all of their hard work in getting the MMS system stood up for our Grand Chapter this year. Your dedication to get all of the Chapter records put into MMS is more than greatly appreciated. I would also like to extend my profound thanks to RWDGM (and PGHP) Randall L. Watson for his tireless work and wise counsel. Without you these Grand Sessions might not happen. A big thank you to soon to be MEGHP Rafael A. Rodriguez. We did a lot of travelling together this year which has deepened our ties of friendship – I am proud to call you Companion, Brother, Friend. I hope I have given you (and soon to be REGK Miller and REGS Smith) the proper working tools to perform some skillful labor in the years ahead. I know you will do great things in your term my Brother and I am not far away should you or the Grand Chapter need me.

I also want to thank MWGM Frederick A. Spicer, our Grand Lodge of Maryland, and the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons International for their never-ending support and encouragement. I also want to thank every Companion laboring in the quarries and acting as an ambassador to Royal Arch Masonry. You men truly make things happen. You truly make a difference.

Finally, I wish to thank my children, Liam and Sparrow, and my beautiful wife, Diana. I could not do what I do for Freemasonry without your limitless support. I know there have been many nights you three wished I was home, however I always made a point to be there when you needed me. I love the three of you so much.

And finally, remember this my Companions, “Thousands of candles can be lighted from a single candle, and the life of that single candle will not be shortened.” Travel Bright My Companions and Be the Light the World Needs. Your art enables other people’s art. Your wisdom unlocks other people’s wisdom. Your voice can change the way people think and act. Your kindness may change one life – it may change the world. “Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.”

God bless you all and thank you all for the opportunity to serve our Grand Chapter.

Sincerely & Fraternally,
G. Andrew Martinez, MEGHP

12. Report of the R.A.R.A. Committee

M.E. Comp. G. Andrew Martinez, G.H.P.

The 2023-24 RARA fundraiser of the Grand Chapter challenge coins is still going well. Another 15 have been sold over the last few months, raising a total of $1400.00 in fundraising to date. These coins are limited minting, with only 100 pressed and now only 30 left for purchase. Once they are gone, they are gone. The cost per coin is $20, and 100% of the proceeds from this coin will go to RARA. Donations from our Chapters and at the Member level are down this year, so please do not forget to promote this worthy cause in your Chapters. If you need information to distribute, just let me know or direct your members to givetorara.org. There will be another Grand Chapter fundraiser kicking off soon. RARA is a truly worthy cause!

Sincerely & Fraternally,

19. Report of Long-Range Committee

R.E. Comp. Rafael Rodriguez, GSC

The Long-Range committee continued to work in ensuring chapters could perform the ritual work, focusing on the Mark Master and Past Master degrees. As the front line of York Rite, chapters must be able to get Brothers into the front door of the York Rite and keep them engaged and participating in the chapter activities. In addition to the Grand Lecturer, three Deputy Grand Lecturers will be appointed for the next Capitular year.

In addition to working with aspiring High Priests on their certification, the goal will be to work with the chapters to further develop their ritual capabilities and coordinate and assist in the conferral of the degrees if necessary. A chapter should not feel like they are doing the work alone. There are many Companions within the jurisdiction who are willing to help the chapters in the conferral of the degrees. If a chapter needs assistance, they should contact the Grand Lecturer, Deputy Grand Lecturers, or the Grand Secretary, and assistance will be provided.

The constant message from MEGHP Martinez has been encouraging the chapters to “think outside the box” and develop programs for their chapters. These programs could include social events, presentations from companions, discussions about subjects related to the Royal Arch or the York Rite, and anything that will keep new companions wanting to attend the meetings. Additionally, the Grand Chapter has been working with the Grand Council and Grand Commandery to develop a program where companions can receive all the York Rite degrees and hopefully keep their interest and momentum alive.

Additionally, there are conversations being held between this Grand Chapter and the Hiram Holy Grand Chapter Holy Royal Arch Masons, PHA, to determine the feasibility of having a combined “Royal Arch Festival” between both Grand Chapters. More information on this will be provided as it becomes available.

As we move forward, we should continue to work with the Grand Council and Grand Commandery to strengthen the Maryland York Rite as a whole by encouraging Companions and Sir Knights to attend and support their York Rite bodies.

I want to thank all the officers of the Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch of Maryland for their support to the York Rite bodies and I am looking forward to continuing to grow and strengthen the York Rite of Maryland.

Respectfully Submitted, Rafael A. Rodriguez, R.E.G.S.

It was moved and seconded to accept both reports and passed unanimously.

20. Report of Membership Committee

R.E. Comp. Rafael Rodrguez, GSC

As of the writing of this report, overall membership is at 927 Companions, which is a significant loss from last year's reported 1050 Companions. However, these numbers are the result of the massive clean-up effort led by MEGHP William Eppig, MEPGH Vern Huebschman, and other companions as part of the implementation of the Masonic Membership Solutions (MMS) System.

During this capitular year, most chapters exalted new companions, ranging from 3-8 new companions. Additionally, 6 of the 14 chapters have seen positive growth, and we understand that several chapters have been receiving a steady flow of petitions. There are two major factors impacting positive growth, which are suspensions and deaths. And although our membership growth looks positive, there is still room for improvement.

The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Maryland remains committed to the continued growth of each chapter and stands ready to assist in any way to meet each chapter's needs.

Respectfully Submitted, Rafael A. Rodriguez, R.E.G.S.

It was moved and seconded to accept the report and passed unanimously.

The Grand Lecturer and Deputy Grand Lecturers shall be paid for their services, from the funds of the Grand Chapter, his the actual expenses incurred, and such sum as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Grand Chapter.

30. Final Remarks of the Grand High Priest

M.E. Comp. Rafael Rodriguez, G.H.P.

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master, Most Worshipful Past Grand Master, Past Grand High Priest, Grand Officers, Distinguished East, Companions of the Royal Arch, friends and family: Welcome

I stand before you this morning deeply humbled and honored by the trust you have placed in me, having been installed as the Most Excellent Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Maryland. It is with reverence for our ancient Craft and a profound sense of responsibility that I assume this high office, fully aware of the sacred duty it carries and the legacy it demands we uphold.

First and foremost, I extend my sincere gratitude to my distinguished predecessors, whose vision and dedication have shaped the Grand Chapter we cherish today. Their labors, wisdom, and leadership have been instrumental in strengthening the bonds of our fraternity, and I shall endeavor to build upon the solid foundation they have laid.

I would also like to express my personal gratitude to MEPGHP Andy Martinez for his invaluable support and guidance as I prepared for this important role. His advice and mentorship have been essential throughout this journey, and I am deeply grateful for his confidence and his friendship. Additionally, I want to thank MEPGHP Bill Eppig, a cherished friend whose companionship has enriched my Masonic experience for many years. Our friendship began when he was the Executive Officer of Maryland DeMolay, and it has only grown stronger over time. MEPGHP Bill installed both of my sons as Master Councilors of their DeMolay chapter and having him install me as Grand High Priest this morning holds deep personal significance. It is a privilege to share this moment with you. Thank you very much Most Excellent Grand Companion!

I also extend my appreciation to the Installing Officer and the team who orchestrated this evening's ceremony with such precision and care. Their dedication exemplifies the excellence we strive for in all our endeavors.

To my family, friends, and mentors, especially to MEPGHP Vern Huebschman and MEPGHP Bruce Colburn, I offer my heartfelt thanks for their unwavering support and encouragement throughout my Masonic journey. Without their guidance and inspiration, I would not be standing here before you tonight.

This moment would not have been possible without the steadfast support of my family. To my sons Rafael, Marko and Lucas; thank you for being my sons and the free spirits that you are. I am blessed to have you as my children, and I am proud of everything you have accomplished in your young life.

To my wife, Yolima, I offer my deepest gratitude. Your encouragement, understanding and especially your patience, to my Masonic duties have been invaluable throughout my journey. Yolima, your unwavering support has allowed me to dedicate myself fully to the Craft, and your love has been my constant source of strength.

To the rest of my family and friends who have walked this path with me, thank you for your encouragement, your support, and your belief in the work I have chosen to pursue. It is because of you that I stand here today, prepared to serve.

I would like to take a moment to acknowledge and warmly welcome MEGHP Clarence A. Traynham, the Most Excellent Grand High Priest of Hiram Holy Grand Chapter Holy Royal Arch Masons Prince Hall Affiliate. Your presence here this morning honors us all, and we look forward to your continued partnership in the work of our respective Grand Chapters.

Companions, this moment is one of deep personal significance for me. I began my Masonic journey as a seeker—drawn to the Craft by curiosity, sustained by fellowship, and enriched by the profound lessons imparted through each degree. Over time, I have come to realize that Masonry is more than the sum of its rituals; it is a transformative journey—one that shapes us as men, brothers, and leaders.

This moment is not just a personal milestone; it is a testament to the values we hold dear—brotherhood, service, and the pursuit of truth. When I first joined the Royal Arch Chapter, I never imagined I would be standing here as Grand High Priest. My journey has been one of growth, learning, and deepening my commitment to our Craft. I want to express my heartfelt thanks to the members of Mt. Vernon RAC No. 25, whose mentorship and guidance have been instrumental in my growth and journey within the Royal Arch. I am deeply honored to follow in the footsteps of those who have dedicated their lives to the principles of our craft.

The friendships I have formed, the lessons I have learned, and the opportunities to serve have profoundly impacted me. They have taught me the importance of humility in leadership, patience in mentorship, and steadfastness in service. As I assume this office, I do so not merely to lead but to serve, ever mindful that true leadership in our fraternity is expressed through dedication to others and through building up those who labor with us.

As we embark on this new Capitular year, I am committed to advancing several key priorities to strengthen our Grand Chapter and ensure that Royal Arch Masonry in Maryland continues to flourish.

First and foremost, the growth and success of each individual Chapter will be at the heart of our efforts. Every Chapter is a vital part of our fraternity, and each deserves the full support of the Grand Chapter. To this end, we will place great emphasis on Grand Visitations and communication between the chapters and this Grand Chapter. These visits will not be mere formalities; they will serve as opportunities for collaboration, fellowship, and mutual support. The officers of this Grand Chapter and I are fully committed to working hand-in-hand with each Chapter, offering guidance and assistance to help them thrive.

Our collective success lies in our unity, and it is essential that every Grand Chapter officer embraces the responsibility to promote the growth, vitality, and harmony of our Chapters. We will ensure that the lines of communication are always open, that your needs are heard, and that our leadership is responsive. Together, we will seek ways to increase membership, inspire active participation, and foster an atmosphere where both seasoned and new Companions feel welcomed, engaged, and empowered to contribute.

I am also pleased to announce the appointment of three Deputy Grand Lecturers, who will work closely with the Grand Lecturer. Their mission is to assist Chapters in developing strong ritual teams and mentoring aspiring Most Excellent High Priests, ensuring that our ritual work remains vibrant and inspiring for future generations.

Furthermore, I would like to remind the representative of each chapter: Grand Chapter awards are available to recognize the efforts of those Companions who exemplify the values and principles of our Order. I encourage each Chapter to recommend deserving Companions for these awards, so that their dedication can be acknowledged publicly. It would give me great pleasure to present these honors personally during my Grand Visitations, as a way of recognizing excellence and inspiring others to follow in the same path of service and commitment.

We will also renew our focus on ritual excellence. Through our ceremonies, we impart the wisdom of our Craft, and it is essential that we perform them with precision and reverence. Every Companion, regardless of rank, has a part to play in preserving the sanctity of our work.

Finally, we will engage more actively with the members of the chapters and continue to mentor new members, ensuring they are welcomed, supported, and empowered to contribute to the life of our fraternity.

Companions, while the journey ahead presents challenges, I am confident that we can achieve great things if we labor together in unity. The strength of our Grand Chapter lies not in the titles we bear but in the dedication, energy, and passion that each of us brings to our work.

I urge every Companion to take an active role in the life of their Chapter, to mentor new members, and to be a source of encouragement to one another. The growth and success of our fraternity depend upon all of us working hand-in-hand, united in purpose and steadfast in our commitment to the principles of Royal Arch Masonry.

As we embark upon this new Capitular year, let us be mindful that the work we perform today lays the foundation for those who will follow. The future of Royal Arch Masonry in Maryland depends on our willingness to embrace change while honoring tradition, to labor diligently while leading with compassion, and to build with care the temple of unity that binds us together as Companions.

I thank you once more for the privilege of serving as your Most Excellent Grand High Priest. I look forward to the journey ahead, knowing that, with the blessings of the Great Architect of the Universe, we shall labor together in peace and harmony, ever mindful of the high purpose to which we are called.

May the Great Architect guide our thoughts, inspire our actions, and strengthen our resolve, that all we do may reflect the noblest ideals of our Craft.

May peace and unity prevail in all our endeavors. Thank you, Companions.

So mote it be.

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD I SHALL NOT WANT. HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES: HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS. HE RESTORETH MY SOUL; HE LEADETH ME IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE. YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW OF DEATH. I WILL FEAR NO EVIL; FOR THOU ART WITH ME. THY ROD AND THY STAFF COMFORT ME; THOU PREPAREST A TABLE BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES: THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL: MY CUP RUNNETH OVER. SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE; AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOREVER. AMEN
